Full description of webinar topic:

In una città come Roma è meglio costruire la metropolitana o conservare il patrimonio archeologico? È meglio mangiare pane e Nutella o conservare le palme tropicali? Se anche tu ti senti un po' Socrate alla ricerca della verità e della giustizia e vuoi coinvolgere i tuoi studenti in interessanti seminari socratici per aiutarli a pensare e a comunicare in italiano, ci vediamo il 29 novembre alle 7:30 con un webinar fatto apposta per te che insegni italiano dal livello uno al livello AP. Maria Gloria Borsa metterà a tua disposizione una varietà di attività e di materiali per cominciare subito a questo interessante percorso conoscitivo.

Presenter's Bio:

Maria Gloria Borsa teaches Italian at Bellaire High School in Texas. She graduated in Foreign Languages And Literatures at the University of Sassari, Italy, and has two Master Degrees, one in Bilingual Translation from the University of Westminster in London, UK, and one in Theories And Methodologies For Teaching Italian To Foreigners from the University of Tor Vergata in Rome, Italy. An AP Reader since 2014, she is now part of the leadership and continues her collaboration as a consultant with The College Board. Within her roles as AP Daily Lead Instructor, AP Italian Lead Consultant and AP World Languages Lead Teacher for the Houston Independent School District, she enjoys sharing new strategies to empower both teachers and students with the love of learning new languages and cultures. She defines herself as a Teaching Practitioner, proud to promote equity and access for all through the teaching of Italian language and culture.
