"Blending" language courses at all levels:
Create a flexible and motivating learning environment.
Strengthen the connection between language and culture"

*Presented by Daniela Bartalesi-Graf
SATURDAY JANUARY 25, 2020 9 to 10:30 am*

You will learn how:

- to teach a "blended" language course using free online modules. This will include designing a syllabus and planning for assignments before and after class.

You will leave with:

- activities ready to adapt and use in your "blended" language course.

About our presenter:

Daniela Bartalesi-Graf is Lecturer in the Department of Italian Studies at Wellesley College. Her research interests are in Italian language pedagogy and 20th century Italian cultural studies. She is the author of three textbooks:

- L'Italia dal fascismo ad oggi: percorsi paralleli nella storia, nella letteratura e nel cinema, at the intermediate-advanced level;*
- Voci dal Sud: A Journey to Southern Italy with Carlo Levi and his Christ Stopped at Eboli, at the advanced level;*
- Caleidoscopio, an Italian Language and Culture Intermediate Textbook, at the intermediate level (co-authored with Colleen Ryan, Professor of Italian, Indiana University).*

Daniela has also developed four Italian MOOCs (Massive Open Online Courses) for the edX platform. One of these courses is the AP Italian Culture and Language.
